SA [REDACTED] called from Miami. He said that an individual by the name of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Tacoma, Washington, had checked into the Fontinbleu with $40,000 in cash. He told various real estate people he wanted to buy real estate in Miami and is currently looking for some.

He is described as:

Race:	White

Age:	47-50
Height:	5'9"
Weight:	150 lbs.
Eyes:	Blue
Hair:	Brown
Telephone No.:	[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] said it was his thought may be he was our hijacker.

I told him he did not necessarily fit the description but to check the serial numbers on the $20.00 bills against the list which he should have. He said he would do this.

He suggested that even though he does not fit the description, we should determine through available sources in Tacoma, just who he is and how he happens to have $40,000 in cash.

For the Bureau's information, on January 6, 1972,

[redacted] Northwest Airlines in Minneapolis, Minnesota, accompanied by [redacted]

[redacted] Northwest Airlines; [redacted]

[redacted] Northwest Airlines; and [redacted]

with permission of [redacted] of Northwest Airlines, flew the same Boeing 727 aircraft that was hijacked from Minneapolis to Seattle so that an experiment could be held endeavoring to simulate the exact flight conditions in order that it could be determined if the airplane reacted in the same way and in that manner when the weight equivalent to the estimated weight of the hijacker was ejected from the airplane via the back stairs.

Under [redacted] directions, the last three rows of seats were removed from the aircraft and special measuring devices were attached to the rear end of the cabin so that it could be determined exactly what happened in the aircraft when the weight was dislodged. Through the assistance of members of the U. S. Air Force, three sleds were made on which were placed sand bag weights, bringing the total weight to approximately 235 pounds, that being the estimated weight of the hijacker, the parachute, and the money.

On the morning of January 6, 1972, the Air Force provided a tracking plane with sophisticated photographic equipment on it, which first swept the surface to insure that there were no surface crafts in the vicinity, and at that point the 727 ascended to approximately 7,000 feet over the Pacific Ocean west of Hoquiam, Washington.

[redacted] put the aircraft in the same flight configuration as the hijacker had directed, at which time Air Force personnel allowed the weighted sled to fall from the end of the stairs. The reaction in the airplane was instantaneous and was described by [redacted] as being the same reaction that they had in the airplane when they believed the hijacker jumped.

As a result, [redacted] has now taken this information, together with some refined data given to him by the Air Force, and has identified an area near Highland, Washington, where it is believed the hijacker jumped.

b6

The employees of Northwest not only spent considerable time on this project, but [redacted] had to arrange for the airplane to be taken from the flight line for a day and one-half so it could be accomplished. The representatives of Northwest, particularly [redacted] have been extremely helpful during this entire investigation and in view of this extended effort on their part, it is suggested that the Bureau may desire to address a letter to [redacted] Northwest Airlines, expressing the Bureau's appreciation.

On viewing a facsimile copy of an artist's conception of the hijacker on Northwest Flight 305, on November 24, 1971, she stated that the conception was not, in her opinion, a good likeness of the hijacker. She requested permission to examine the Facial Identification Catalog, and immediately picked out photo number KK5-1, in the Facial Lines Section, stating, "that is him, except for the ears and hair." She explained that the person depicted in that particular number photo closely resembled the man; however, the ears of the hijacker did not protrude as far from the head, and she felt that the hair line should be some lower than that on the man depicted in photo number KK5-1. She was very adamant in her insistence that the artist's conception shown to her was not a good likeness of the hijacker.

She was [redacted] to Northwest Airlines Flight 305, that was hijacked between Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, on November 24, 1971. She had previously related to Special Agents of the FBI at Seattle all details that she could recall concerning the hijacker, and understood that the purpose of this interview was to assist in the preparation of an artist's conception of the hijacker, by answering certain questions regarding the best recollection she has as of this time of the hijacker.

[redacted] described the hijacker generally as a white male, age 38-45, olive complexion, height 73 inches, weight 165-170 pounds, slim build, and hair dark brown or black.

She was unable to describe his eyes as he wore horn-rimmed dark glasses at all times she observed him while aboard the flight, and she further pointed out that [redacted]

[redacted] permitted to leave the plane at Seattle.

When questioned further to further define various characteristics of the hijacker, she described his head as oval, eyes unknown, eyebrows average, nose small, mouth small, thick lower lip, thin upper lip, chin pointed, ears average, cheek and cheekbone average, hair straight, and slightly balding. She could not make any comment concerning facial lines, and said he did not have a moustache, beard or pockmarks and skin irregularities.

[] was then exhibited a "Facial Identification Catalog," depicting various types of heads, eyes, etc., and thereafter picked the following identified photos as being best representative in her opinion, of the hijacker: Head - KA3-9, Eyes - unknown, Eyebrows - OC1-10, Nose - OD4-1, Mouth KE9-11, Chin KF2-17, Ears - KG1-12, Cheek and cheekbone - OH1-9, Hair KJ1-1. As previously indicated, she did not suggest any particular number for facial lines, moustache, beard or pockmarks and skin irregularities.

[] was subsequently exhibited a facsimile copy of an artist's conception, based on information furnished to the artist by Stewardess []. Her first comment upon viewing this drawing was, "That's him"; however, she later made the following suggestions, which in her opinion would make the drawing a closer likeness to the hijacker: the man depicted is too young; the hair-line is good, but the hair should be thinner. His ears were slightly smaller in the fleshy area, and not so squared off. The nose should be thinner. Mouth - bottom lip is good but not quite so wide; more hollow below cheekbone and jaw. Chin possibly smaller.

In addition to the above, [] had made the following additional comments concerning the hijacker:

b6
b7C

His clothing consisted of dark pants, white shirt, black or dark tie, coat dark, and wore black horn-rimmed colored glasses. He looked very clean cut, was a very heavy smoker, no noticeable accent, very soft spoken, and he did not impress her as being athletically inclined.

Bureau authority has been requested to publish an artist's conception and composite description of subject in "Pilot Bulletin", monthly publication of the Airline Pilots Association.

Although available, it is not believed feasible at this point to obtain a complete list of all members of the U. S. Parachute Association, variously estimated between 10,000 to 40,000 members depending on activity.

AIRPORTS, FLYING CLUBS, FLIGHT SCHOOLS,
PARACUTE AND SKYDIVING CLUBS

On the possibility that subject might have rented an airplane and flown over the area of Southwest Washington or might have chartered a plane for the same purpose, the following investigation was conducted in the State of Washington but failed to identify the subject:

An artist's conception and composite description of subject was exhibited to owners and operators of each flying school, each airfield and airport, each company renting or chartering aircraft, and each skydiving school and club.

Similar inquiry has been conducted at the Portland International Airport and at airports at Aurora and Donald, Oregon in Marion County, Oregon, and is being conducted throughout the remaining portion of the State of Oregon.

All skydiving clubs, parachute clubs and affiliated or related organizations have been and/or are being contacted nationally and subject's composite description and artist's conception is being displayed among the various memberships in an effort to identify subject.

A list of all affiliated clubs of the U. S. Parachute Association for the entire United States as well as an index of the members of the affiliated clubs for the states of California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Idaho and Arizona have been obtained. This will insure control over this facet of the investigation.

An international skydiving meet was held December 4, 1971 at Abbotsford, B.C., Canada.

Parachutists from the Western United States and Canada participated. Wide distribution of the artist's conception and composite description of subject was made among the participants without effecting any positive identification.

The artist's conception of subject and the following article will be published in the January, 1972 issue of "Parachutists", the monthly bulletin of the U. S. Parachute Association, with headquarters at Monterey, California, and the membership is estimated at between 10,000 and 40,000 members depending on activity.

"Enclosed is an artist's conception of the hijacker who extorted two hundred thousand dollars from Northwest Airlines on November 24, 1971. This man is described as follows:

"Race-white; sex-male; age mid-forties; height-five feet ten inches to six feet; weight-170 to 180 pounds; build-average to well built; complexion olive, latin appearance, medium smooth; hair-dark brown or black; normal style, parted on left, combed back; sideburns, low ear level; eyes-possibly brown. During latter part of flight put on dark, wrap around sunglasses with dark rims. Voice low, spoke intelligently, no particular accent, possibly from Midwest section of the United States. Characteristic-heavy smoker of Raleigh filter tip cigarettes. Wearing-2. Apparel-black suit; white shirt, narrow black tie; black dress suit; black rain-type overcoat or dark top coat; dark briefcase or attache case; carried paper bag four inches by twelve inches by fourteen inches; brown shoes.

"If you have any information which might lead to the identity of this individual, please contact the nearest FBI Office."

The same article will also appear in the January, 1972 issue of "Skydivers", monthly publication subscribed to by many parachute enthusiasts.

Efforts are being made to include the same article in "Pilot Bulletin", official monthly publication of the Airline Pilots Association, Washington, D.C.

A major jump center on the West Coast has been identified as the Elsinore Paricenter, Inc., Elsinore, California. Each person making a first jump at this location, regardless of prior experience, must fill out a registration form bearing identifying information.

On December 3, 1971, Special Agents EDWARD A. ROMANOFF and [redacted] reviewed approximately 12,000 registration cards of parachutists who have jumped from the Elsinore Paricenter, Inc. 433 registration cards were photographed representing those jumpers who registered at the Elsinore Paricenter, Inc., since 1969 and fit within the physical description limits of 35-55 years of age, 150-190 pounds, and five feet eight inches to six feet one inch in height.

A systematic review of these cards is being conducted to possibly identify subject.

Registration cards prior to 1969 do not contain height data. Such cards, numbering approximately 18,000, date back to 1957.

On December 10, 1971, flight records for the month of August, 1971 were photographed at the Elsinore Paricenter, Inc. These records contained the last names of the jumpers, the altitude from which they jumped, and the name of the pilot and date.

A review of these flight records December 14-15, 1971 revealed the last names on these records match 31 individuals whose descriptions match those of subject and who jumped from the Elsinore Paricenter during the month of August, 1971. Sixteen of the individuals whose cards were photographed were eliminated as possible suspects by interviews. The remaining 15 possible suspects are being systematically reviewed in an effort to identify the subject.

Re [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was contacted at his home, Tacoma, Washington, on December 27, 1971. [REDACTED] stated basically the same information as provided in his letter to U.S. Senator HENRY M. JACKSON. This information is in essence as follows:

[REDACTED] got on Northwest Orient Flight #45, Minneapolis to Seattle, on Monday, September 13, 1971. A person got on the plane at Billings, Montana, approximately 8:00 a.m. This person is hereafter referred to by [REDACTED] as "the pilot." The pilot got off the plane to stretch at Great Falls and upon returning to his seat for the flight to Missoula, Montana, [REDACTED] and the pilot struck up a conversation. While flying over the Great Falls area, [REDACTED] asked the pilot if he knew the identity of any of the buildings below them. The pilot identified many of the buildings, indicating that he had flown over the area many times in the past. In addition the pilot told [REDACTED] the requirements for landing an aircraft at a field such as that required in Great Falls, Montana. Through conversation it was obvious to [REDACTED] that the pilot was familiar with both Missoula and Great Falls airports. [REDACTED] then asked about the aircraft which was a 727 and asked the pilot if there was a built-in skid that hit the ground every time on the take-off which produced a characteristic noise. The pilot then responded, no, that the noise heard was the landing wheels being brought up at the exact moment when the pilot begins his climb. This led to a discussion of the 727 aircraft.

[REDACTED] asked if the pilot had ever flown a 727 at which time the pilot stated that he had piloted a 727 and had made "numerous low-level flights for the military dropping personnel and supplies in places that were otherwise inaccessible." [REDACTED] asked the pilot if he had ever jumped from a 727 at which time the pilot said "In training, we all had to jump. It was a hell of a thrill." [redacted] then said one word "Thailand?" at which time the pilot responded "something like that" (indicating no). The pilot further stated that he hadn't been able to get a job flying 727 aircraft as a civilian due to his lack of flying hours. [redacted] emphasized the point that the pilot continually used the word personnel rather than soldiers and it was noted that it was not certain whether the pilot was flying for the military or possibly the CIA. At this point, [redacted] dropped the questioning.

b7C

The pilot got off the plane to stretch at Missoula, Montana. While the pilot was off the plane another man took his seat, at which time the pilot went to the forward cabin upon returning to the aircraft. The aircraft made an unscheduled stop at someplace which [redacted] believes to be Sandpoint, Idaho. The pilot got off the plane at this unscheduled stop as well and exited the aircraft in his shirt-sleeves. When the pilot came back aboard the aircraft he entered with four men who were all dressed identically. It is believed by [redacted] that these men were either paratroopers or smoke jumpers, both of which it was learned by [redacted] have camps within a radius of 30 miles of Sandpoint, Idaho. When these four men came aboard, one woman seated on the aircraft reacted by screaming. Another man yelled "What the hell is going on." "A bunch of motorcycle hoodlums?" [redacted] stated that one of the individuals mumbled something like "We're paratroopers" but the wording at this point was incoherent. Whatever was said satisfied the man and woman who both apologized. The pilot took two of these men forward and said that he could arrange for two of them to sit up front with him (the pilot). The other two men sat in the rear of the plane. One of the individuals who went forward with the pilot, it is felt like [redacted] looked a great deal like the artist's conception of the hijacker. The man who could have been the hijacker was described by [redacted] as follows:

b6
b7C

Height:	6' 1" to 6' 2"
Build:	Thin
Facial features:	Narrow
Hair:	Covered by cap
Weight:	Unable to determine
Wearing Apparel:	Black coat made of a shiny material, leather or plastic; sunglasses with extremely wide frames, narrowing toward the ear.

Coat - had a high sloping collar, completely covering the neck. The coat went down to the man's knees, indicating that it was not at all full and the person was not very heavy in weight [] stated that he could not hazard a guess as to the person's age as he was able to see very little of the person who could have been the hijacker. The voice was described as being very low, and very smooth. The pilot was described by [] as follows:

Height:	Approximately 5' 10"
Weight:	170 pounds,
Build:	Trim in appearance
Face:	Solid face, round, with round cheekbones and a round chin, full lips, no strain lines anywhere on the face, face Germanic or Slavic in origin
Age:	Approximately 30
Hair:	Dark in color with a heavy head of hair which covered half of his forehead, sideburns, average
Dress:	Gray slacks with a gray coat that did not match,
Characteristics:	Self-confident

It is [] contention that the hijacker "is a person who had jumped at some time with technical construction and/or aid in navigation, speed of plane, setting of wings, and use of explosives. Someone who had flown that kind of plane before may have accidentally or purposely passed this information on to the hijacker. It was obvious that it had to have been planned by someone who knew navigation." [] feels that the pilot may easily have been a pilot for the Central Intelligence Agency. [] feels this is the case because he stated that []

[] If the pilot had been a former pilot for the CIA dropping men and supplies in Southeastern Asia, then the pilot could have easily passed this information on to one of the smoke jumpers who boarded the plane at Sandpoint, Idaho. The pilot and the man that looked like the hijacker both sat in the forward cabin and it is quite possible that the pilot discussed the operations of the 727 aircraft and the requirements for jumping from same, while seated with the two smoke jumpers.

[] stated that he wrote to Senator JACKSON because he felt that the hijacker would never be identified until information was obtained from the CIA. [] stated that if the FBI were to locate and identify the pilot, then the CIA would have to identify this man as having been a pilot for the CIA and admit that they have been dropping personnel in Southeastern Asia. [] stated that this could have serious political implications when it is learned by the Chinese and could ruin the upcoming visit by President NIXON to China. [] stated that as a result of the hijacking we were to uncover this activity by the CIA, this could be the biggest blunder since the U2 incident. It is for this reason that [] feels we will never get to the bottom of the hijacking and solve it until possibly after the proposed conference by President NIXON in Mainland China.

At one point during the interview, [] made reference to past activity in writing for Communist newspapers. [] claimed that he at one point wrote a report which had been used by the Intelligence Division and which had been hand-delivered by the Governor of the State of Washington to then President HARRY TRUMAN. Seattle indices reflect numerous references in security investigations, for [] It is recommended that these indices references be thoroughly reviewed before a reply is prepared as requested by Senator JACKSON.

Incomplete details of our conversation regarding hijacking:

1.. "We", of the pilot,, probably referred to an entire crew jumping in practice.. A co-pilot,, navigator,, jump master (if jumpers carried) and a cargo master.. Probably a very cohesive crew..

2.. The landing field,, if Sandpoint,, Ida,, was approached across a gorge not far from end of runway,, 3.. The collar of the tall suspect,, (headless horseman costume) was six inches wide in rear,, but tapered to about 3 inches in front,, and was lined with a brown fur..

4.. C.I.A. connection= almost certain if he flew outside the continental U.S.. Saturday Review of Jan. 1,, 1972,, in an article on the Pentagon papers,, page 25,, end of paragraph 2: "Later,, Lansdale describes in a brief passage CIA's "proprietary" Civil Air Transport.. To the innocent world this company was the National Airline of Taiwan.."

The "pilot's" experience is probably listed China Airlines..

And where would a 727 operating out of Taiwan drop "personnel"= probably Mainland China...

5.. Where could $200,000 be changed on the black market,, by some one with proper credentials?? Taiwan,, Hongkong or Manila?? Where a CIA--China Airlines pilot could have met black market operators?"

China Airlines operates out of San Francisco to Honolulu Wed.,, Fri.,, and Sun.. at 1:15 p.m.,, and on to Taipei and Hongkong.. The airline is probably so small that every pilot would probably know every other pilot.. And would there be a lifetime pass for an old trusted employee?? Or a flight with an old friend without being on the manifest?"

While the schedule was changed Dec. 1,, Continental and Pan Am operate flights out of Portland now every night at to Hawaii 6:40 p.m. China Airlines operates flights from Honolulu Mon., Tues.,, Thurs.,, and Sat at 1:15 p.m. for Taiwan..

6.. The pilot's clothes were expensive.. The closest weave I could spot in Nordstrom Best's were $ 205 and $ 215.. The faint off-white yellow shirts start at $ 22.50 If that faint single thread were actually a Hongkong weave of a gold thread- it would be more than $ 50.. Not simple tastes..
